Permission Form

I give permission for my child or children to attend the All Ontario Choir weekend at the AOC 2008 facility. I understand that although this is a supervised activity, there is still a certain amount of risk involved. I agree that should my child, or children, not follow the rules and regulations set out in the following details, they could be sent home at the parent's expense following notification.

1. There will be no smoking or drinking of any alcoholic beverage in or on the property of the facility, or in the home in which they are billeted.
2. There will be no inappropriate language, behaviour, or dress (including no form-fitting, tight clothing, exposed midriffs, low necklines, or short skirts).
3. Participants are expected to stay on facility property at all times.
4. No skateboards will be brought to AOC; if skateboards are brought, then they will be confiscated by leaders or organizers.
5. The teens are responsible for maintenance and tidiness of all rooms that are used.
6. The group will only be allowed in those areas designated by the facility, and the organizers of all the All Ontario Choir. Participants are to remain on the facility property at all times.
7. Leaders and chaperones are on duty at all times, and their directions should be followed and respected.
